Director's Notes...

Nobody can write a show tune like Jerry Herman did. He wrote the music and lyrics for three of the biggest hits ever on Broadway: MAME, LA CAGE AUX FOLLES and, of course, HELLO, DOLLY!

And some of his “less successful“ shows, such as DEAR WORLD and MACK & MABEL, feature some of the best work he ever did. You will hear songs from all of these shows in JERRY'S GIRLS — some you already know, some that will be new to you. I'm sure that you will enjoy them all when performed by these three talented women. There is no tune like a show tune—especially as written by Jerry Herman!

Herman was born in New York City in 1931 and raised in Jersey City. He taught himself to play the piano and started on his career path after his parents took him to see Annie Get Your Gun. He studied theater at the University of Miami, then returned to New York, where he worked as a musician and eventually debuted on Broadway with some songs he contributed to the 1960 revue, From A to Z. The following year, his first full show, Milk and Honey premiered and earned five Tony nominations. After that his career took off and Hello, Dolly! cleaned up at the Tonys, winning 10. Next, Mame was another smash, winning three Tony Awards and finally, La Cage (which broke barriers for gay representation) won 6 Tony Awards. Jerry Herman has come to be known as one of the great composers of the 20th Century.
