Director's Notes...

Tis the season to present A Christmas Carol! Again? Year after year? There are more than 100 movies and TV adaptations. Even the Muppets and Daffy Duck got in on it!! The same old story about a grouchy greedy old curmudgeon back in the olden times who is visited by ghosts and in the end (spoiler alert!), he's nice!!

In studying the script, I realized that this story resonates beyond the past. It speaks to us right now. That is why you won't hear proper British accents tonight. I wanted us to hear ourselves in the story. Charles Dickens thought of A Christmas Carol as a way to help open the hearts of the prosperous and powerful, towards the not as well off or powerful. As Fred, Scrooge's nephew, says Christmas is a time when men and women open their hearts and think of people "below" them as if they were fellow passengers in life. Yes, there are differences - in appearance, status, values, beliefs, abilities - but we are all fellow passengers. Dickens chose the title "A Christmas Carol" because he wanted to convey the idea that the story's message of generosity and redemption would spread wider, like a traditional carol is shared from person to person to person, acting as a powerful and uplifting call to action. The call to generosity and kindness.

What a wonderful and caring family this Athens Theatre is. A gem of DeLand. I am so honored and grateful to be part of it. God bless, Every One.

MEET THE BAND

Juan Ceballos (Cello) has been playing the cello for over a decade. His musical career has led him to perform on vast amounts of stages in addition to working alongside countless students to further their own musical journeys. For the past five years Juan has had the privilege of studying under Professor David Bjella at the University of Central Florida; his time at UCF has allowed him to find a true passion for teaching. Some highlights of his teaching career include working with “A Gift for Music” to give Title 1 schools access to the fine arts, being a cabin counselor and cello instructor for young musicians at Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp and providing private lessons at The Orlando School of Music. All of these experiences created a burning desire for higher fine arts education, culminating in his part in the co-creation of the Central Florida Cello Association, an organization which provides the UCF cello studio with multiple masterclasses a year given by world class artists and acclaimed educators.

In addition to Disney, Laura has performed at Sea World, Universal Studios and various convention shows and musicals. She has toured Florida with the Mantovani Orchestra and artists such as Liberace, Johnny Mathis, Red Skelton, Andy Williams and Donna Summer, Stevie Wonder, Ray Charles, Peter Cetera and Rod Stewart. Santi Gabino (Director of Marketing and Communications), a native of South Florida, relocated with his husband and two crazy dogs to DeLand in the summer of 2022. With a rich background in venue and event management, Santi served as the Executive & Marketing Director of a highly successful venue in Homestead, FL, for over 11 years. During his tenure on his family's estate, he orchestrated nearly 100 weddings, attracting attention from renowned publications like Allure Bridal and Modern Bride for magazine shoots. The venue also became a prime location for television filming, hosting esteemed networks such as Nickelodeon and Telemundo. He also spearheaded the creation of a wildly popular Farm-to-Table dinner series. Having cultivated a substantial social media following in his previous role and drawing upon his expertise, he now oversees the creation of all marketing materials, develops content for social media, writes press releases, radio scripts, and billboard copy, manages public communications, nurtures business-to-business relationships, and more. Additionally, he contributes a monthly food and lifestyle column to The West Volusia Beacon, titled "Central Flavors." Outside of work, Santi finds joy in cooking, painting, and succumbing to the irresistible temptation of buying things he absolutely doesn't need at any yard, garage, or estate sale that crosses his path.

Craig Uppercue (Director of Community Relations) A Stetson University (BM/BME) & Grand Canyon University (M.Ed) alumnus, Mr. Uppercue has taught for 20 years in the public school systems of Florida, currently serving as a Fine Arts specialist in Volusia County Schools. Mr. Uppercue has been with the Athens Theatre since 2011 and had the wonderful privilege of serving as Artistic Director for 10 years. He is now honored to be playing a continued part in the life of the theatre. Craig is the Music Director of the Off-Broadway

National Tour The Rock & The Rabbi and performs with the show when available. Other performing opportunities include Broadway and Off-Broadway credits such as The Witnesses Musical (Original Cast member), The Lion King, Songs for a New World, and numerous national tours throughout the U.S. He is actively involved with many professional symphonies and maintains an active performing schedule with professional artists throughout the nation. Craig and his wonderful wife, Amy, live locally, enjoying every moment as they watch their three daughters grow up!
